

N.Y.C. CHINATOWN REUNION NEWSLETTER
December, 2011

February 16, 2012

We offer our condolences to Ping (Fong) Lee for the passing of her mother.

We wish to offer our condolences to the family of Bok Kim Moy, Bill, Georgianna, Pete and Belle.

We also wish to offer our condolences to the family of Alma Dong, Priscilla, Roberta, Luella, Norma, Vivian and Eugene.

Condolences to Stella (Jack) Chan's family. Stella and Benny are now together again.

We're losing too many old friends. Time to wake up and smell the roses, so join us at the NYC Chinatown Reunion in Las Vegas from May 14 to May 18, 2012.

Double Lions Welcoming the Spring
Dance of the Heavenly Flower Maiden
Hubei Coin Stick Dance
Dragon Dance

Come see these fantastic dances:

Yung Ge the Premiere of Whirlwind created in collaboration with Grammy-nominated composer & drummer Glen Velez and a special performance by the Chinese Music Ensemble of New York

As the spring thunder rolls in, the magical Chinese Dragon wakes up from its hibernation and descends from the high mountains. It swims into the ocean and flies above the clouds to spread its rain making power to ensure a prosperous Year of the Dragon on earth. Come to NJPAC to catch a glimpse of the glorious and majestic spirit of the dragon in this stunning presentation full of visual beauty and excitement. See spectacular dances based on ancient legends and folklore; hear world class Chinese instrumentalists showcase beautiful and exotic sounds from a far away land rich in diverse ethnic tradition; learn the art of Origami from artist Penny Sing and take home a paper cut creation from Master Paper Cutting Artist Hou-Tien Cheng. The Dragon symbolizes potent and auspicious power of the Chinese people. Celebrate the Year of the Dragon with the Nai-Ni Chen Dance Company to mark this significant year in the the Zodiac cycle. To complete the celebration, participate in one of the pre-performance workshops and join the Company for the Feast of the Dragon King Gala. Reserve your tickets now!
