Subject: Chinatown Reunion Articles

Over the years, I have written Chinatown Reunion articles for the Reunion Bulletins in 2002, 2008, and 2012. I have compiled them into a single word document for my grand kids to read one day and look back and see what life was like growing up in NYC's Chinatown. My kids learned a lot from reading them since they grew up in the suburbs and went away to college where their experiences were quite different from mine. My nieces, nephews, & cousins, and extended family got to know their Uncle Daniel a little better through these articles.

I am submitting these articles to the web site..."Memories of Chinatown" for any interested parties to read about the Chinatown that we knew and grew up in the 40's—60's.

When Gladys asked me to write a article for the 2008 reunion, she had indicated it was going to be her last one since it took a lot of time and the 2006 one had a lot of moaning and whinnying. I decided to dedicate it to her and her team for their hard work and effort in planning and executing these reunions.. She has done an excellent job over the years and deserves the appreciation and gratitude of not only the past Chinatown generations of the 40's-60's but also the generations following them.

Personally, I was a big advocate and very passionate about the Chinatown Reunions even though I was not able to attend them because of family reasons. Thank GOD... she still has that energy and is advising Jean Chin on getting the Oral History Project off the ground.
